

Stop this complete abuse of the public airways by big business or we as the public will stop you at the ballot booth. This event will show us, the public, who you really are working for and I will share your actions to event with everyone I know.